

All charts are based on data from the Migration Atlas 2025 (European Commission), with analysis by the Spanish Institute for Migration Analysis.

51 MILLION

Over the past 15 years, the number of forcibly displaced people has surged. At the end of 2024, more than 51 million people needed international protection.

